Recital Guidelines

- Your dancer must wear make up on stage. This includes earth tone eye shadow, bright blush, mascara (on top lashes only), and bright red lipstick
- Pack a bag with everything you might need for recital day. Make – up, brush, hairspray, bobby pins, safety pins, change of clothes, etc.
- Dancer must wear a cover up over costume to recital. This could be a bath robe or large button up t-shirt.
- Preschool classes are in the 1st half of the show only. We do encourage them to stay for the 2nd half for the learning experience. Bring a change of clothes.
- Costumes are not allowed in the auditorium.
- All dancers report to assigned dressing room, they must stay backstage until the show is over.
- Ballet shoes must be pink, and stings must be cut. Do not cut the elastic. Tap shoes must be tan, if they do not buckle, they must be fastened with tan elastic or tap ties. No ribbons.
- Do not wear underwear with costume. Tights are their underwear.
- Dancers cannot wear jewelry or have their nails painted.
- If dancers costume has a hat it must have an elastic chinstrap.
- All hair pieces are worn as decided at dress rehearsal. If headpiece does not come with costume, do not wear one.
- All hair ties must be natural hair color.
- Dancer cannot eat or drink when wearing their costume. Water is okay. No Gum.
- Put your dancers name in everything!
- Only LSOD crew and dancers are allowed backstage during recital.
- Dancer and mothers are the only ones allowed in dressing rooms. Space is limited. No Boys allowed. Boys will have their own dressing room backstage right.
- No changing in the restroom, use dressing rooms only.
- If your dancer is missing part of their costume let LSOD staff know ASAP.
- All dancers must have proper tights for routines.
- Remind dancers that when they are performing and something falls off costume, they must leave it and keep dancing.
- Spray glitter is not allowed at the Lied Center.
